Donald Sutphin was born in Boston in 1926. He attended the Boston Museum School of Fine Arts and the Art Students League of New York where he studied under George Grosz.

Sutphin was an art instructor in private schools in Connecticut and New York before moving to Florence, Italy in 1956. He has continued to work in Florence since then where he also teaches woodcut and etching. He lives with one wife, two dogs and six cats. This is his first show in the Detroit area.

ONE MAN SHOWS:

Tucson, Arizona: Bonfoey Gallery

The Hague, Holland: Kunsthandel Liernur Gallery

Atlanta, Georgia: Emory University

Kansas City, Missouri: The Little Gallery

Rome, Italy: Scorpio Gallery; The American Academy

Florence, Italy: Gallery Aquilone; Gallery Tornabuoni

“The very personal style of Donald Sutphin merges both the figurative and non-figurative — the yet imaginable and the image that cannot be caught.

One enters the artist’s world of an estranged, inscrutable reality.” W. Penders, Art Critic, « Het Vaderland », The Hague, Holland.
